Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Md

BALTIMORE, January 7, 1901.

DEAR SIR:—I have shown your note to President Gilman and he suggests that I say to you that it has been decided to have a celebration of the Johns Hopkins University commemorative of its twenty-five years, and also looking forward to the next twenty-five years, early next October; and that on the twenty-second of February, near at hand, there will not be anything but the ordinary proceedings. He is very much gratified by the spirit of the New York alumni, and he hopes that in October they will be here in a large delegation.

Yours very truly,

Dr D H HOLMES
